

Organisations that will have to comply with the Framework

Type of organisation*	Child and Youth Safe Standards	Reportable Conduct Scheme	Date must start to comply
 Accommodation and residential services for children, including housing services and overnight camps	✓	✓	1 January 2024
 Activities or services of any kind, under the auspices of a particular religious denomination or faith through which adults have contact with children	✓	✓	1 January 2024
 Child care and commercial babysitting services	✓	✓	1 January 2024
 Child protection services and out-of-home care, including Children's Contact Services	✓	✓	1 January 2024
 Health services for children, including organisations that provide counselling services	✓	✓	1 January 2024
 An organisation that provides early intervention or disability support services	✓	✓	1 January 2024
 Justice and detention services for children	✓	✓	1 January 2024
 Education services for children	✓	✓	1 January 2024
 Tasmanian Government and Local Government	✓	✓	1 January 2024
 Tasmanian Parliament	✓	✓	1 January 2024
 Government House	✓	✓	1 January 2024
 A club, association or cadet organisation that has a significant membership of, or involvement by, children	✓	✓	1 July 2024
 An entity that provides a coaching or tuition service to children	✓	✓	1 July 2024
 Neighbourhood Houses	✓		1 July 2024
 An entity that provides commercial services to children	✓		1 July 2024
 A transport service specifically for children	✓		1 July 2024

*Full details of the organisations proposed to have to comply with the Child and Youth Safe Standards, and the Reportable Conduct Scheme, are set out in Schedule 2 and 3 respectively within the Child and Youth Safe Organisations Act 2023.